

Data Privacy Statement

We, Liebherr-Verzahntechnik GmbH, attach great importance to the protection and security of your personal data. This is why it is important to us to inform you in the following about which of your personal data we process for which purpose, and what rights you have with regard to your personal data.

A. General information

I. What is personal data and what does processing mean?

- "Personal data" (hereinafter also "data") are any pieces of information that tell you something about a natural person. Personal data are not just pieces of information that allow a specific person to be identified directly (for example a person's name or e-mail address), but also information which can be used with suitable additional knowledge to establish a link to a specific person.
- "Processing" means any actions performed with your personal data (for example collecting, recording, organizing, structuring, storing, using, or erasing data).

II. Who is the controller for the processing of your data?

The controller for the processing of your data is:

Liebherr-Verzahntechnik GmbH
Kaufbeurer Straße 141
87437 Kempten
Germany
Phone: +49 831 786 0
E-mail: info.lvt@liebherr.com

III. How can you reach our data protection officer?

Use the following contact details to reach our data protection officer:

Corporate Privacy

IV. What rights do you have as a data subject?

As a data subject, you have the right, within the framework of the law, to:

- Access your data;
- Rectification of inaccurate data and completion of incomplete data;
- Erasure of your data, particularly if (1) they are no longer required for the purposes stated in this data privacy statement, (2) you withdraw your consent and there is no other legal basis for the processing, (3) your data have been unlawfully processed, or (4) you have objected to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing;
- Restriction of the processing of your data, particularly if the accuracy of the data is contested by you or the processing of your data is unlawful and instead of erasure you request restriction of use;

- Object to processing of your data based on preserving legitimate interests, on grounds relating to your particular situation or, without specific justification, to processing of your data carried out for the purpose of direct marketing; unless it is an objection to direct marketing, we ask that, when you lodge an objection, you explain the reasons why we should not process your data in the way we usually do. If your objection is reasonable, we will examine the specific circumstances and cease processing, unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing is for the purpose of asserting, exercising or defending legal claims;
- Receipt of your data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and the right to have your data transmitted from us directly to another controller;
- Withdraw consent if you have provided us with consent to processing. Please note that the lawfulness of the processing done on the basis of the consent up until its withdrawal is not affected by your withdrawal.

If you assert any of the rights listed above, please understand that we may require you to provide evidence showing that you are the person you claim to be.

In addition, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you believe that the processing of your data infringes the GDPR.

B. Data processing

I. Digital content

We give you the option to access or download digital content provided by us, such as white papers and similar documents. If you exercise this option, we will process the data listed below.

What data do we process for what purposes?

We process the following data:

- Business e-mail address

We generally only process this data for the purpose of providing digital content.

Data may only be processed for other purposes if the requisite legal conditions in accordance with Art. 6 (4) GDPR have been met. In this case, we will of course comply with any information obligations pursuant to Art. 13 (3) GDPR and Art. 14 (4) GDPR.

On what legal basis do we process your data?

The processing of your data is carried out for the fulfillment of a contract or for the implementation of pre-contractual measures in accordance with Art. 6 (1) (b) GDPR.

II. Making contact

We also process the data collected from you in the course of providing digital content in order to contact you regarding the digital product in question.

What data do we process for what purposes?

We process the following data:

- Last name, first name (optional)
- Company (optional)
- Business e-mail address

We generally only process this data for the purpose of providing digital content.

Data may only be processed for other purposes if the requisite legal conditions in accordance with Art. 6 (4) GDPR have been met. In this case, we will of course comply with any information obligations pursuant to Art. 13 (3) GDPR and Art. 14 (4) GDPR.

On what legal basis do we process your data?

The processing of your data is carried out for the protection of legitimate interests in accordance with Art. 6 (1) (f) GDPR.

The legitimate interests we pursue are:

- Economic interests
- Product improvements
- Communication with interested parties in regard to products / services

You have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time to processing based on Art. 6 (1) (f) GDPR.

III. Data recipients

We may transmit your data to:

- Other companies of the Liebherr Group, where this is necessary to initiate, implement or terminate a contract, or we have a legitimate interest in the transmission and your overriding legitimate interest does not oppose this;
- Our service providers that we use in order to achieve the above-stated purposes;
- Courts of law, courts of arbitration, authorities or legal advisers, if this is necessary to comply with current law or to assert, exercise or defend legal claims.

IV. Data transfers to third countries

The transfer of data to bodies in countries outside the European Union or the European Economic Area (so-called third countries) or to international organizations is only permitted (1) if you have given us your consent or (2) if the European Commission has decided that an adequate level of protection exists in a third country (Art. 45 GDPR). If the Commission has not made such a decision, we may only transfer your data to recipients located in a third country if appropriate safeguards are in place (e.g. standard data protection clauses adopted by the Commission or the supervisory authority according to a specific procedure) and the enforcement of your data subject rights is guaranteed or the transfer is permitted in an individual case on the basis of other legal grounds (Art. 49 GDPR).

If we transfer your data to third countries, we will inform you of the respective details of the transfer at the relevant points in this data privacy statement.

V. Data erasure and storage period

We will process your data as long as this is necessary for the respective purpose, unless you have effectively objected to the processing of your data or effectively withdrawn any consent you may have given.

Insofar as statutory retention obligations exist, we will be bound to store the data in question for the duration of the retention obligation. Once the retention obligation expires, we will check whether there is any further need for the processing. If there is no longer such a need, your data will be erased.

VI. Automated decisions in an individual case

We generally do not use fully automated decision-making in accordance with Art. 22 GDPR. If we use such procedures in individual cases, we will inform you of this separately, if this is required by law.

VII. Data security

We use technical and organizational security measures to ensure that your data are protected against loss, inaccurate modification or unauthorized access by third parties. Moreover, in any case we ensure that only authorized persons have access to your data, and this only insofar as is necessary within the scope of the purposes listed above.
